Financial Literacy: Core Financial Concepts

Thursday, October 6 @ 6:30pm
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Presented by Licensed Financial Professional, Amina Osagie

Join us as Amina Osagie walk us through core financial concepts that help individuals to become informed consumers, allowing them to take better control of their goals and aspirations, such as getting out of debt, saving more money, sending a child to college, or planning for retirement.

Area Agency on Aging Presents: Caregiver Resources & Tips for Caregivers

Wednesday, October 12 @ 6:30pm
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Caring for a loved one is one of the most rewarding, yet often challenging responsibilities individuals can face. Very frequently family members are completely unprepared for the financial, legal, medical, and moral obligations associated with care giving, and feel overwhelmed by the urgent nature of the learning curve.

Thinking Ahead: End of Life Planning

Thursday, November 3 @ 6:30pm
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Learn more about end of life planning and why you should think ahead. Lynch & Sons Funeral Directors will be at the Library to provide information about end of life planning and why it's important to have those conversations ahead of time.

Bad Art Afternoon

Friday, September 30 @ 4:00pm
REGISTRATION REQUIRED

Think you're bad at art? Bring your lack of skills to a freestyle craft event to make the worst possible art. The worst artwork (as determined by audience vote) will receive a prize.

FRIENDS OF THE WALLED LAKE LIBRARY

In Memory of Jan Sell

Jan was one of the Friends of the Walled Lake Library directors and a Lifetime member. Jan retired from Walled Lake Schools after serving as an elementary music teacher for many years. She loved to travel and enjoyed musical events with University of Michigan friends.

Jan was an avid library user and great supporter of the Walled Lake Library. She will be greatly missed.

About the Friends of the Library

The Friends of the Walled Lake City Library is a volunteer group whose aim is to help promote and publicize the services of the library. They sponsor or assist with special library programs and raise funds through their book sales for materials and equipment not provided for in the library's budget. The Friends believe in the value of books and reading in the lives of the young, old, and everyone in between and look to the library as an active educational force in the community.

DONATION DAYS!

Donate all those boxes of books for the Friends of the Library on the 3rd Saturday of every month from 10:00am to 2:00pm.

Contact the Library for more information.

We DO NOT accept computer manuals, encyclopedias, VHS tapes, cassette tapes, medical books, textbooks, or anything damp or moldy
